

A group of approximately 15 people, mostly middle-aged and older, are standing in a line on a paved area in front of a large, old stone church. They are all wearing face masks and winter clothing like coats, scarves, and hats. Two individuals in the group are wearing sashes with the French national flag (blue, white, and red). They are holding a long white banner that reads: EOLIEN INDUSTRIEL
DANGERS pour votre SANTÉ
DÉVALUATION pour votre MAISON
NUISANCES pour la NATURE. The church behind them has a steep red-tiled roof and a small bell tower. The sky is overcast and grey.
